

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PATHWAY HEALTH SELECTED AS CURAVI HEALTH TRAINING AND IMPLEMENTATION PARTNER

Partnership Leverages Pathway Health's Vast Network of Consultants to Support Curavi Health's Telemedicine Solution.

LAKE ELMO, Minn. and PITTSBURGH, PA, MARCH 13, 2017 — Pathway Health has been selected by Curavi Health, a UPMC Enterprises-backed company, as its implementation, training and ongoing support services partner. Curavi Health will leverage Pathway Health's vast network of more than 150 clinicians and technology experts to provide comprehensive implementation, training and ongoing support services for its telemedicine solutions aimed at helping nursing homes reduce potentially avoidable hospitalizations.

"We selected Pathway Health due its deep knowledge of the post-acute care continuum and expert consultants to provide seamless implementation and training of our novel telemedicine solution," said Curavi Health President and Chief Executive Officer Nicholas J. Kuhn.

Curavi Health's telemedicine solution includes CuraviCart™, a telemedicine cart specifically designed for the workflows associated with a nursing home, and CuraviCare™, a proprietary, HIPAA compliant video platform designed to easily facilitate interactions among a remote physician, the patient and nursing home staff.

"We look forward to supporting Curavi Health's innovative telemedicine solution," said Pathway Health Chief Executive Officer Peter B. Schuna. "As providers continue to implement strategies to improve patient outcomes while lowering costs, leveraging state-of-the-art technology will play an important role in providing quality, patient-centered care."

About Curavi Health

Curavi, a Pittsburgh-based company, offers its customers CuraviCart telemedicine equipment, specifically designed for the workflow in the challenging, nursing-home environment, and CuraviCare software that allows staff to easily request a telemedicine consult. Curavi has also developed a formal relationship with University of Pittsburgh Physicians, part of UPMC, to provide after-hours consults from fellowship-trained geriatricians, as well as the Heart & Vascular Institute of UPMC to provide 1 hour turnaround on ECG reads. UPMC ranks No. 12 for geriatric medicine nationally in the latest quality scoring by U.S. News & World Report. For more information, call 1-888-5CURAVI or visit curavihealth.com.
